Grandmaster Bryant Harrell & Grandmaster Leotte Harrell along with Master Chris Keane are seasoned martial arts teachers. They are also nationally certified firearms instructors and weapons, range safety coaches.

With the unfortunate crisis of school shootings, violence and accidents in our communities and around the country, the Harrell's use the approach of education, especially in low income and at risk communities. Also getting parents involved with the training and safety.

Here they are with Fists of Faith Firearms Training Mascot Ammo The Safety Dog! Teaching Mighty Miracles on firearms safety situational awareness, active shooter drills and conflict resolution, all as a part of the E. K.G. Educating Kids on Guns Program, with “Ammo” The Safety Dog is created by Bryant and Leotte Harrell.

Grandmaster Bryant Harrell, AKA Commander B-Safe, is also a military vet, and military combat instructor.
